

The String of Pearls

An experienced professional string quartet comprising of four stylish, elegant and talented musicians.

One of the most sought after string quartets for hire in London and the South East, they are highly regarded for playing light classics and popular music at corporate events, weddings and special occasions all over the U.K. and abroad. The quartet performs regularly in top hotels, historic buildings, museums and country estates.

Having graduated from the Royal Academy and Royal College of Music they quickly built up an extensive repertoire of music to suit all tastes and found themselves in great demand to play at events and perform recitals here and abroad. They have performed on the QE2 and were so popular that there after they were invited back with an open choice of destination, making guest performances all over the world. They have played for Royalty as well as Celebrities in the Media, the Labour Party and for Estee Lauder at Harrods as well as appearing on T.V. and have performed in an array of diverse venues. Ideal for drinks receptions and weddings, please contact The Party Agency today to discuss hiring this quartet for your event. "Thank you all very much for the wonderful music you played at the Foyles 70th Anniversary Lunch. I was tempted to start dancing."

"I write to thank you all for your superb concert last night. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves and the whole church buzzed with pleasure and sheer enjoyment."

Penny Brook

"We have been booking the String of Pearls for over 10 years to play for receptions, weddings and promotions at the Grosvenor House and in the then Forte Hotels in London. Not only are they delightful to have at any event be it large or small, their playing is superb. They have become a firm favourite at the Grosvenor House and their performances are particularly enjoyed by the Executive Management team."
